

NATIONALRad

SUBSPECIALISTS IN DIAGNOSTIC RADIOLOGY

Cary J. Hoffman, MD

Vice President, Musculoskeletal Radiologist

BACHELORS DEGREE: Boston University

MEDICAL DEGREE: Boston University School of Medicine

MICROSURGERY RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP: Massachusetts General Hospital / Harvard Medical School

GENERAL SURGERY RESIDENCY: Yale-New Haven Hospital, Yale University (1 Year)

DIAGNOSTIC RADIOLOGY RESIDENCY: Mount Sinai Medical Center

MUSCULOSKELETAL RADIOLOGY FELLOWSHIP: Duke University Medical Center

CERTIFICATIONS: American Board of Radiology

Dr. Hoffman is acting business partner and cofounder of NationalRad. His publications have appeared in peer-reviewed journals such as Skeletal Radiology, and he has presented his work on such topics as condensing osteitis of the clavicle, distal bicipital bursitis and primary multifocal osseous lymphoma at the Radiological Society of North America (RSNA) annual meeting. Dr. Hoffman has received several awards for his work and research. Prior to cofounding NationalRad in 1999, Dr. Hoffman served as a diagnostic subspecialty musculoskeletal radiologist for International Magnetic Imaging in Boca Raton, Florida for four years.

