

Michael A. Tall, MD Musculoskeletal Radiologist

BACHELORS DEGREE: University of Pittsburgh

MEDICAL DEGREE: University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine

DIAGNOSTIC RADIOLOGY RESIDENCY: San Antonio Uniformed Health

Education Consortium

MUSCULOSKELETAL RADIOLOGY FELLOWSHIP: University of Virginia

Health Science Center

AREAS OF INTEREST: Sports medicine imaging, particularly traumatic and overuse injuries

CERTIFICATIONS: American Board of Radiology

PROFESSORSHIPS: Musculoskeletal MRI Fellowship Program Director -

Wilford Hall U.S. Air Force Medical Center

Dr. Tall joined NationalRad in 2007. He is a lieutenant colonel in the United States Air Force (USAF) and the chairman of the department of radiology at Wilford Hall USAF Medical Center in San Antonio, Texas.

Previously, Dr. Tall served as section chief of MRI and musculoskeletal imaging at the David Grant Medical Center at Travis Air Force Base in Fairfield, CA. He has received several academic and service awards and honors, including Air Force achievement and commendation medals. Dr. Tall's publications and presentations on the osseus tunnel after anterior cruciate ligament (ACL) repair, displaced meniscal fragments and chondrosarcoma have appeared at Radiological Society of North America (RSNA) and American Roentgen Ray Society (ARRS) annual meetings, as well as in the Journal of Computed Assisted Tomography.